

Christophe BOUTIN

Christophe Boutin currently serves as President of ASECAP for the period 2019-2020.

Christophe Boutin is the Executive Director of ASFA.

He is graduated as an engineer from Ecole Polytechnique and l'Ecole Nationale des Ponts-et-chaussées.

He started his career as a consultant with the Boston Consulting Group. He joined the highway sector in 2004, first at Société des Autoroutes Paris Normandie (SAPN), as director of construction and sustainable development and then in charge of the concession contracts at Sanef. In 2011, he joined ASFA, the professional highway association in France, as deputy to the managing director. He participates in workgroups of several road associations: URF (Union Routière de France), UNSPIC (Union des Services Publics, Industriels et Commerciaux), E3PO (European PPP Operating Companies in Infrastructure and Services), IDRRIM (Institut des routes, des rue et des infrastructures de Mobilité) and PIARC (The World Road Association). He represents ASFA at ASECAP Board (European Association of Operators of Toll Road Infrastructures) and at the ASECAP COPER I (financing and tolling committee). He served as ASECAP First Vice President for the period 2018-2019